

Member Rights and Responsibilities

NeueHealth commits to the treatment of Members in a manner that respects their rights and outlines the Members' responsibilities in care delivery. NeueHealth must always respect Member rights and support Members in exercising their rights to the fullest extent possible. Members have the following rights:

1. A right to receive information about the organization, its services, its practitioners and providers and member rights and responsibilities.
2. A right to be treated with respect and recognition of their dignity and their right to privacy.
3. A right to participate with practitioners in making decisions about their health care.
4. A right to a candid discussion of appropriate or medically necessary treatment options for their conditions, regardless of cost or benefit coverage.
5. A right to voice complaints or appeals about the organization or the care it provides.
6. A right to make recommendations regarding the organization's member rights and responsibilities policy.
7. A responsibility to supply information (to the extent possible) that the organization and its practitioners and providers need in order to provide care.
8. A responsibility to follow plans and instructions for care that they have agreed to with their practitioners.
9. A responsibility to understand their health problems and participate in developing mutually agreed-upon treatment goals, to the degree possible.
